cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ragland.

The rooms were decorated with pink and cream colored roses. Refreshments were served at the close of the games.

Miss Rachel Nugent was honor guest Saturday evening at a party given in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weiss on West Guenther Street, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Featuring a Halloween motif, the rooms were decorated with black cats, witches and streamers of orange and black crepe paper, while the favors were Halloween hats. Bunco, dancing and Halloween games were enjoyed during the evening.

A yellow cake embossed with tiny pumpkins formed the centerpiece for the dining room table, at one end of which was a pumpkin shell filled with fruit. Assisting Mrs.

Weiss in serving the orange colored ice and cake were Mesdames Louise Heiligman, C. M. Davenport, Misses Florence Tearney and Isabel Voight.

The guests included Misses Nugent, Katherine Mason, Gussie Weiss, Ilene Gaylor, Vita Mae Smith, Elizabeth Ingram, Glada
