Miss Rachel Nugent was honoree at an attractive party Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weiss, on West Guenther street, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

The near approach of Halloween was evidenced by the gayly decorated reception hall, living and dining rooms, which were artistically decorated with blacks and orange crepe paper twined across the walls, cats and witches, pinned on the curtains and Halloween souvenirs.

Halloween games, bunco, and dancing made up the entertainment for the evening.

The dining room table had in the center a lovely huge pumpkin-colored cake embossed with pumpkins. At an end of the table was a large pumpkin shell laden with fruits, and tiny baskets of mints.

The ices and cake were colored orange. Punch was also served throughout the evening.

Guests included: Misses Katherine Mason, Gussie Weiss, Ilene Gaylor, Vita Mae Smith, Elizabeth Ingram, Glada Harson, Marie Tearney, Annie Lawson, Lois Schroeder, Jane Lawrence, Lula Mae Tolette, Eva Barnholtz, Linda Magers, Ellen and Esther Weiss of Welfare, Florence Tearney, Isabel Voight, Rachel and Addie Mae Nugent and Stephen Moore and Edwin Smith, Victor Barnholtz, Junior Nordhouse, Alex Nugent, Paul Weiss, George Bodenmiller, Fred Krause, Charles Hurd, Edward Brimer, Howard Neeper, Charles and Thomas Davenport.
