

CLARK GABLE MAKES FIFTH RAID; WILL RETURN TO AMERICA

A U. S. Flying Fortress Base in England, Sept. 23. (AP)—Capt. Clark Gable, who went on today's raid on Nantes, disclosed after his plane returned that he will leave for the United States soon with a gunnery training film he has been directing.

He said he hoped to see active service in some other theatre before the war is over, and added:

"But you know, I just do whatever the army tells me to."

In today's raid the former movie star participated as a combination camera man and gunner. The ship was hit by anti-aircraft

WHEELER TO SPEAK

New York, Sept. 23. (AP)—(Mountain war time)—Sen. Burton K. Wheeler has been scheduled for a 15-minute talk on "The Manpower Problem" on NBC at 8:30 p. m., Friday.

fire, but none of the crew was wounded.

"I didn't hit a damn thing," Gable said.

The raid was Gable's fifth and earned for him the air medal.

The peacetime matinee idol looked like anything but that when he stepped from the plane in wrinkled green coveralls.

He flew in the Flying Fortress "Duchess," with Lieut. Col. Robert W. Burns of Ecorse, Miss.
