

Committees Named For Veterans Day

Completion of appointments of persons to serve in making plans for Veterans day, Saturday, Jan. 3, was announced yesterday by Judge Henry Todd, veterans chairman of the Freedom Train committee.

The observance of Veterans day will be closely associated with the appearance of the Freedom train on Jan. 5.

In addition to a Freedom parade at 1 p.m. Saturday afternoon, a veterans rally is scheduled to be held in War Memorial auditorium immediately following the parade. Thirty-five planes of the 105th fighter squadron under the command of Col. Robert Burns, will stage an air show over Memorial square before the start of ceremonies.

Committees which have been appointed to carry out the program are:

Parade: Gen. Hilton Butler, chairman, Capt. Lewis R. Dorris, Syd Grooms, Dr. H. H. Walker, Jacobs Doyle, Tom Potter, Dalton Cocke, Mrs. Florence Redelsheimer, Walter Gasser, Homer Weimar, H. I. Carrell, and Ruth E. Moore.

Rally committee: Frank G. Clement, master of ceremonies, Duncan Davis, Julius Curley, Blythe Bond, Col. Robert Burns, W. J. Anderson, Mrs. F. A. Henry, Mrs. Walter Smith, Arthur Williams, and Gene Davis.

Publicity chairman, Fletcher McKinney.
